

Student Chromebook Use Contract

Once the device is issued, the student is responsible for the device, including charges for damages and lost computers. There will also be consequences for intentional and careless use of the device, as well as for repeated damages. Chromebooks are a privilege that can be taken away if they are not used responsibly and/or properly.

1. The computers are not your personal property. They are the property of Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools under your care. You will be turning in computers and chargers at the end of the school year.
2. Students will bring their computer and charger to school EVERY DAY.
3. If a student does not bring their computer or charger to school, they will receive a demerit for being unprepared.
4. Students will be charged for missing or damaged computers/chargers.
 - Device was lost or stolen- $50
 - Device damage- $15
 - Lost/Replacement Charger- $10
 - Miscellaneous or other charges (individual parts of device)- $5
5. Students will only use appropriate/approved language in all communications while using their school-issued computer. No profanity, cyberbullying, offensive or inflammatory language will be tolerated.
6. Students will not attempt to use any unauthorized websites or attempt to tamper with the hardware, software, or other security features.
7. Students will follow these guidelines to help prevent any damage to devices:
 - No food and drink near devices.
 - Do not set object on top of a closed device or inside a closed device
 - Do not carry the device by the screen or with the screen open
 - Do not spray the device to clean it
 - Do not set the device on the floor.
 - Do not touch anyone else's device other than your own. You will have to pay for the damage if you damage someone else's device.

I have read and understand the statements above and agree to all terms and conditions in order to use a school issued Chromebook. I accept that if I do not follow these rules, there will be consequences.
