Read, Reflect, and Respond

(Grades K-1)

Directions: Read independently for at least 20 mins and read to someone for 10 mins each night. Then complete the activity.

Monday: Use a describing Map to describe a character from the text.

Title _________________________________________________

Author _________________________________________________

Illustrator _______________________________________________

Tuesday: After reading, write 3 questions that can be answered using the text.

Title _________________________________________________

Author _________________________________________________

Illustrator _______________________________________________

1. __________________________________________________________________________

2. __________________________________________________________________________

3. __________________________________________________________________________
Read, Reflect, and Respond

(Grades K-1)

Wednesday: Complete the sequence map to tell what happens in the story. Write an event in each box.

Title ______________________________________________________

Author _________________________________________

Illustrator _____________________________________

!Sequence Map

Thursday: After reading, complete the Problem and Solution chart.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Problem</th>
<th>Solution</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Friday: Would you like to be the main character in the story? Why or why not?

Title ______________________________________________________

Author _________________________________________________

Illustrator _____________________________________________
Read, Reflect, and Respond

(Grades K-1)

Friday: On another sheet of paper, use your Compare and Contrast Map to write at least two paragraphs to compare and contrast the characters or events in your text. Attach it to your Read, Reflect, & Respond sheet.