Celebrations

Celebrations

- 100% EC Headcount for April 1st
- $500 grant from New York Life for Hornets Nest's participation in relevant trainings and identification as a grief sensitive school. Funds from the grant will go towards grief resources, materials, trainings, and family outreach to support our students and families who have experienced grief.

Celebrations

- According to the Fall 2023 Student SEL and Well-Being Panorama Survey for grades 3-5 we experience growth in all identified areas ranging from a +1 with students possessing positive feelings to a (+7) in the area of social awareness.
- Lazy 5 Ranch
  - Kindergarten April 9th
  - 1st Grade April 15th
  - 2nd Grade April 22nd
- 5th Grade Symphony Field Trip March 12th - behavior was great! They enjoyed themselves.

Pre-K Updates

- Second Trimester TS Gold Reports were sent home.
- Our Wheel Unit was completed, and we started our Ball Unit.
- We will celebrate the Ball Unit with a Field Day. Our partnership continues with Hopewell High School's Soccer Team. The student athletes will assist with the Field Day activities.
- Student and families celebrated Spring with our 2nd annual Hat Parade. Students decorated hats at home to represent spring. Families assembled in the bus lot as the Pre-Kers Paraded by wearing their hats and then sang 2 spring themed songs.
