

Direct Certification

Determining children eligible for free or reduced benefits based on documentation obtained directly from appropriate State or local agencies or other authorized individuals. Direct certification of a child's eligibility status does not involve the household. The communication exchange is between an appropriate agency and the State agency, LEA, or school.