Challenges of Middle School Transition

Goal= Independence

On-Time Attendance is

- Academically
- Socially / Emotionally
- Life-long Habit

You Are Very Important To Your Child's Success!

- There is a direct relationship between parental involvement and student achievement!
- Parents need get even more involved in the middle school years.
- Parents should maintain strong family connections to students.
- Parents should encourage involvement in school activities such as clubs, athletics, and community service.
- Parents should listen...Seek first to understand your Bronco.

What can Parents do for 6th Graders?

- Join the PTSO, volunteer, and be involved in school activities.
- Ensure good attendance and on-time arrival for school each day.
- Check Powerschool – Set up “Notifications” for a weekly report
- Talk to your child often about organization, school, grades and friendships...Don't Rescue, just be a thought partner!
- Check homework and have them study daily. Provide a study area at home.
- Communicate with your child's teachers, counselor, and administrator and encourage your Bronco to do the same.
- Request Parent Conferences when needed!
 - *These are not automatically scheduled
- Time Management – Have students use their agendas! Write in HW, due dates, events, etc. Help students look at their day and week and plan accordingly.
- Know how your child is getting home daily and make sure they know...bus, car, ride with a friend, bike.

Final Thoughts & Tips

LINK TO POWER SCHOOL AND MONITOR WEEKLY.

WRITE THEIR NAME ON EVERYTHING.

ONLY SEND SUPPLIES BASIC SUPPLIES FOR FIRST DAY!

DUMP BACKPACKS WEEKLY.

MONITOR AND ENCOURAGE USE OF THEIR AGENDA.

SIGNATURES ARE NOT THE END OF THE WORLD.

CAR RIDER LINE COMES FROM HOUGH AND LINES UP IN THE MIDDLE LANE.

REMEMBER THAT MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE DRIVEN BY PERCEPTION AND EMOTIONS THAT CHANGES BY THE MINUTE...TALK THROUGH THINGS WITH THEM AND DISCUSS SOLUTIONS THAT THEY CAN PUT INTO PRACTICE.

Don't always rescue them...it's ok to fail, fall, or forget things.
